parties

Whatever the occasion – a special birthday, wedding anniversary, engagement or coming of age – creating the right setting is essential. A cleverly decorated area will not only bring your theme to life, it will also set the desired mood and create a memorable evening for your guests. ■

corporate events

When your brand is on display at a corporate event, nothing is more important than projecting the right image. Regardless of whether it is a product launch, sales conference or fundraiser, your customers, staff and guests have very high expectations. So it is essential that your company, brand and message be presented to the best advantage. Your Event Solution has the furniture, equipment and experience to help you put together an event to be remembered. As hire equipment specialists we understand your needs and are totally committed to helping you achieve a quality outcome. Inside this brochure is a selection of inspiring themes that we have helped our clients put together. If you like what you see, why not put us to the test with your next event? We guarantee you will be delighted with the result. ■

community events

We have the practical know-how to help you get the best value for your event, whether it's a school dinner, an annual fete, or a five-star fundraiser for your special group. We'll come and inspect your site, then prepare a plan that fits your needs and your budget. ■
